

Omaha World-Herald 9/20/10

NEW HIRES Mueller Robak LLC

Matthew T. Schaefer

Mueller Robak LLC is pleased to announce that Matthew T. Schaefer has joined the firm.

Schaefer, a Columbus, Neb., native, received a Bachelor of Arts in political science from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with high distinction. He earned his Juris Doctor with high distinction from the University of Nebraska College of Law in May 2010. He was admitted to the Bar of Nebraska in September of 2010.

As an undergraduate, Schaefer was elected president of the student body and served as a student regent of the University of Nebraska Board of Regents. He was a David Distinguished Scholar and was active on campus as a member of FarmHouse fraternity. He was chosen to be a member of the Innocents Society, the Chancellor's Senior Honorary. During law school he received the Theodore C. Sorensen Fellowship and earned membership to the Nebraska Law Review, serving as an executive editor.

Schaefer also served as the student representative on the Law School Dean Search Committee.

Mueller Robak LLC is one of the premier lobbying and government relations firms in Nebraska. The professionals of Mueller Robak LLC have an active and respected presence before the Nebraska State Legislature and all agencies of state and local government. The firm's offices are in Lincoln.

Matthew T. Schaefer