

Omaha World-Herald

September 10, 2012

OFFICERS NAMED

Nebraska Alumni Association

The Nebraska Alumni Association is pleased to announce changes to its executive board for 2012 to 2013, and 2013 to 2014.

Lincoln lawyer William J. Mueller, senior partner and co-founder of Mueller Robak LLC, has begun a two-year term as board president. A 1980 graduate of the University of Nebraska College of Law, Mueller has succeeded in combining a strong political and legal background to become one of the state's leading lobbyists. He has been selected by his peers for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America and was named a Great Plains Super Lawyer in Government Relations.

Mueller also serves as a University of Nebraska Foundation trustee.

Mueller replaces Jeannine Falter, vice president of business development at Duncan Aviation in Lincoln, who completed her term as president in June.

Joining the NAA Executive Board is Erleen Hatfield.Hatfield, a 1991 graduate of UNL's College of Architecture, is a partner at Buro Happold in New York City. A registered professional engineer, H a tfield is co-chair of the American Institute of Architects New York Technology Committee and a past director of the Structural Engineers Association of New York. Hatfield teaches graduate courses at Yale University School of Architecture and lectures at Pratt University in New York.

The 2012-2013 executive board also includes Eric Brown (retired general manager, KRVN Radio, Lexington, Neb.); Matt McNair (director of development, University of Nebraska Foundation, Lincoln); Jennifer Carson, (finance manager, Sprint, Kansas City, Mo.); Bill Nunez (chief of staff/associate to the chancellor, UNL, Lincoln); and Steve Toomey (principal, BDK Wealth Advisors LLC, Lenexa, Kan.).

William J. Mueller

Erleen Hatfield