

Matthew T. Schaefer
Schaefer@MuellerRobak.com
402.434.3399

MATTHEW T. SCHAEFER

With over ten years of experience as a lobbyist, Matthew T. Schaefer has extensive experience building stakeholder coalitions and guiding complex legislation through Nebraska's unique one-house legislature. Matt has worked with a broad range of clients ranging from some of Nebraska's most respected homegrown businesses to national technology companies bringing new innovations to the state. Matt also assists hospitals, professional associations, and political subdivision on challenging public policy matters.

Before joining Mueller Robak LLC in 2010, Matt was a Theodore C. Sorensen Fellow at the University of Nebraska College of Law and executive editor of the Nebraska Law Review. Matt is one of three firm members who were elected President of the student body of the University of Nebraska while an undergraduate.

Admitted to Practice:

Nebraska Supreme Court, 2010
U. S. District for the District of Nebraska, 2010

Education:

University of Nebraska College of Law, J.D., with high distinction, 2010
University of Nebraska-Lincoln, B.A., with high distinction, 2007

Awards and Distinctions:

Eagle Scout Award
University of Nebraska—Lincoln Student Body President
Innocent's Society, University of Nebraska—Lincoln Chancellor's Senior Honorary
Theodore C. Sorensen Fellow
The Order of the Coif
University of Nebraska—Lincoln Young Alumni Academy, Graduate
Lincoln Young Professionals Group Four Under Forty Award

Community Involvement:

Secretary, Civic Nebraska Board
Vice President, South of Downtown Community Development Organization
Past President, Everett Neighborhood Association
Past Member, Nebraska Humanities Foundation Board